

EXERCISES AT RALEIGH

Dr. D. H. Abbott Delivered the Annual Address.

THE FARMERS' CLUB

Gov. Aycock Orders a Special Term of Alamance County Superior Court.
State Bond Issue Largely Anticipated by Expenditure.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., May 30.—Decorations were observed here today by the General Meade Post, G. A. R., No. 39. A good-sized procession moved from the head of Fayetteville Street at 5 o'clock to the National Cemetery, where Dr.
H. Abbott, ex-corporation commissioner, delivered the annual address, and Dr. I.
McK. Pittenger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiated as chaplain.
Governor Aycock was greatly pleased with his visit to the commencement of Wake Forest College and Littleton College, from which he has just returned. Both institutions he declared to be in a wonderfully flourishing condition.

SPECIAL COURT.

The Governor has ordered a special term of Alamance county Superior Court to be convened by Judge Moore June 22 for the trial of criminal cases.

Professor E. B. Owens, instructor in English at the Agricultural and Mechanical College the past five years, has resigned to spend two years in the University of Chicago.

President Joseph D. McNeill, of the North Carolina Volunteer Firemen's Association, went to Durham yesterday to attend the annual convention there for the date of the annual convention and tournament to be held there this year.
It will probably be some time in July.

FAIRMERE CLUB CHARTERED.
The Farmers' Club Company, of Henderson, was organized and chartered to-day with $25,000. There are about forty incorporators, the purpose being to promote the social and financial interests of the State and its negroes.

The State Treasurer is authorized for the statement that within two days after he received the $107,760 proceeds from the sale of the recent bond issue, over $200,000 of it was paid out, and that within a week there will not be a penny of it to the State's credit.

A check for $50,000 was drawn on this fund to pay back that amount borrowed several months ago from Park National Bank, New York.

PRETTY COUNTRY WEDDING

Marriage of Mr. R. Estes Fleming and Miss Florence Mabel Wells.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SAPONY, DINWIDDIE CO., VA., May 30.—The most brilliant wedding that has ever taken place at Sapony Protestant Episcopal Church was solemnized on May 28th, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when Mr. R. Estes Fleming and Miss Florence Mabel Wells were married. Rev.
S. O. Southall, rector of the church, officiated. The church was tastefully decorated with evergreens and cut flowers.
The bride and groom were met under a lovely arch, over which suspended the marriage bell. The bride party entered in the following order: Bridesmaids and groomsmen—Mr. Bennie Hawkins, with Miss Annie Clarke; Mr. A. V. Wells, with Miss Willie Abernathy; Mr. J. B. Wells, with Miss Rosa B. Wells; Mr. F. J.
Avery, with Miss Dora Wells; Mr. Henry Wells, with Miss Allie Abernathy. The organ was gracefully performed by Miss Agnes Dowd. The Rev. Mr. Southall was master of ceremonies.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wells, and was handsomely attired in blue tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses.
The groom is a popular young railroad man of the Chesapeake and Ohio road.

Miss Nora Belle Hawkins, niece of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and carried a large bouquet of white roses.

Mr. Scott Clarke acted as best man.
The little flower girls were Misses Lottie Clarke and Carrie Galusha.

After the ceremony a bridal party retired to the hospitable home of the bride, where a sumptuous supper was awaiting them, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The bride, who is a very popular young woman, was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left on the north bound train, carrying the best wishes of many friends, and will be at home to their friends at Bumpass, Louisa county, Va.

CARNIVAL MARRIAGE

Groom Resplendent in War Paint of a Big Chief.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLUEFIELD, W. VA., May 30.—Perhaps the most interesting feature of the Red Men's Carnival was the public marriage last night. The ceremony was performed in a large hall, and the bride and groom, who were met by a band of musicians, and of the city, and it is estimated that fully five thousand people witnessed the nuptials. Of these nearly four thousand were within the enclosure, while more than a thousand stood outside and got on the house tops in the neighborhood.

The contracting parties were Samuel Tabor, a member of the Brannwell Tribe of Red Men, and Miss Anna Adridge, of Brannwell. The groom was resplendent in the war paint of a big chief, and the bride was dressed to represent Pocahontas.
The ceremony was witnessed by a large attendance, and the bride and groom were attended by Miss Minnie Bennett, and Samuel Sheppard, with Miss Eunice Tabor were also in Indian costume. The bride and groom were presented with presents to the value of $20, presented by the merchants of the city through the carnival company.

Immediately following the marriage ceremony, Miss Corlies Crozier was nominated as queen of the carnival. B. A.
Marks, on behalf of the Red Men, presented Queen Corlies with a magnificent diamond ring.

Following this a pale-face was burned at the stake by the Red Men, and the eruption of Mount Pelee and the destruction of St. Pierre was vividly reproduced by a splendid display of fireworks.

'LONGSHOREMAN'S STRIKE

Plenty of Men to Take the Place of the Strikers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 30.— From the present prospects it seems that the strike of the negro longshoremen employed by the Northern States Shipping Company and Furness-Wilby and Company will come to an end without the companies suffering any great inconvenience.
About fifty of the strikers have already applied for work, and it is said that the dissatisfaction in the ranks is growing greater every day.

Yesterday morning the companies brought a number of negroes over from Norfolk, and these, with the white men already at work are all that are needed just now. Next week will probably be a busy one, if the companies do not have enough men to handle their ships.

more negroes will be brought from Norfolk.

All of the strikers who applied for work yesterday were given their places back, but both companies have declared that they will not discharge any of the new men to make room for the old ones in case they want to return.

Robert Curry, the white stevedore, is still at work, and the United States Shipping Company will not consider the negroes' demand that he be discharged. The stevedore had trouble with one of the longshoremen, and after being beaten by him, shot at him. This brought on the strike.

The School Board last night met in special session and appointed the teachers for the public schools for the coming year. All of the old teachers, with three exceptions, were re-elected. Superintending Principal Jenkins, who has met with such great success during this year, his first session with the schools, was re-elected, and his salary was raised from $1,000 to $1,250 per year.

Dr. J. W. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, left to-day for Charlottesville, and to-morrow night he will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Hawkins Institute.

DRUIDS' EXCURSION

Opening of the Season at Beach Park, West Point.

Richmond Druids will have an all-day celebration at West Point to-morrow, upon which occasion there will be fishing, dancing, bathing and other amusements.
The train will leave for the Southern at 7 o'clock, returning at 7 and 10 P. M.

This will be the occasion of the opening of the park for the season, and everything will be in the hands of the Southern club. The committee in charge consists of Messrs. T. M. Hargrave, A.
Klaus, Charles J. Hughes and George Dance.

May Queen Fete.

The May queen and her pole dance given Tuesday and Friday afternoons was a decided success, each one of the large audience declaring it one of the prettiest sights ever witnessed. All of the children were well pleased, and the youths, zephyrs and flower bearers were heard from the first.

The May pole dance, by twenty girls in fancy dress, was beautifully danced to inspiring strains from the instruments of the hands of the members of the Ideal Quartette. Messrs. John Shaw, first mandolin; Robert Blaine, second mandolin; and Charles Munday, guitar.

So many requests have been received Letturn Institute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

AMELIA C. H., VA., May 30.—The closing exercises of the Letturn Springs Institute were held last night.
The large audience in attendance and the community at large greatly regret that Dr. Criffin and his family will leave. He has accepted a call to the pastorate of a church in Manchester.

Medals were awarded last night to Miss Weaver for penmanship, Miss Trader and Miss Reynolds for music, while honorable mention was made of Miss Ethel Start as an artist, and Miss Birdie Smith in music.

The institute will be continued next year under the management of Professor W. B. Gates, A. B. and A. M., of Randolph-Macon College, and who has taken post graduate work at the University of Virginia. He comes here directly from the Millersburg Military School, of Millenburg, Ky.

Get on Shortly.
The members of the Corporation Commission hope to be in their new quarters at the City Hall by the end of next week.
Four rooms on the fifth floor have been engaged for the commission, and are now being put in order for the body.

Mr. Akers Back.
Mr. E. G. Akers, former clerk to the Railroad Commissioner, who has been spending some time with his friends, has returned to his home at the Eastern Shore of Virginia, has returned to the city and is at Murphy's. Mr. Akers reports that he had a most delightful time.
